

John Muir's World Travels

Scotland to America (1849)

Canada (1864)

1000-Mile Walk from Indiana to Florida (1867)

Cuba (1868)

New York (1868)

Panama (1868)

San Francisco (1868)

Alaska (1879, 1880, 1881, 1890, 1896, 1897, 1899)

Chicago World's Fair, Boston, Concord, NYC—meets Burroughs (1893)

Europe (1893)

- Liverpool
- Edinburgh
- Dunbar
- Norway
- England (Lake District; London)
- Switzerland
- Italy
- London
- Ireland
- Scottish Highlands
- Edinburgh
- Dunbar
- NYC
- Washington, D.C.
- SF (a journey of many months)

Eastern Trip (1898)

- North Carolina (Grandfather Mountain)
- Tennessee (Knoxville)
- Boston
- Canada (Montreal, St. Lawrence River)
- Maine
- Vermont
- NYC
- Washington, D.C.
- Florida
- Texas (a journey of several months)

World Tour (1903)

- London
- Paris
- Finland
- Russia (Ukraine, Moscow, Siberia)
- Korea
- China
- India (Calcutta, Darjeeling)
- Egypt
- Australia
- New Zealand
- Philippines
- China
- Japan
- Hawaii
- San Francisco (a journey of nearly one year)

Arizona with Helen and Wanda (1905)

Grand Canyon— with Burroughs (1909)

NYC, D.C., Boston (1911)

South America and Africa (1911-1912)

- Amazon
- Argentina
- Chile (to see the araucaria “monkey-puzzle” trees)

- Cape Town (January 1912)
- Victoria Falls (to see baobab trees)
- Up Eastern coast to Lake Victoria
- Down Nile to Mediterranean
- NYC
- SF (a journey of more than seven months)

Los Angeles (1914— death on Christmas Eve)